A CALL FOR PRAYERS FOR THE REPUBLIC OF CAMEROON

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace of Christ be with you and all of yours.

We come to you through the medium of this letter with an appeal to support in doing the one thing that we are encouraged to do unceasingly as Christians – to pray. In Philippians 4:6, the Apostle Paul encourages to bring our petitions, requests, thanksgiving and anxiety to the Lord in prayer. He writes, “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.”

As Christians, prayer remains a pivotal activity in our everyday lives and the Apostle Paul encourages us to carry through this activity even for the sake of others. As believers in the power of God and in prayer even to the point of defying human limitations [like the three Hebrew boys in captivity in Babylon (Daniel 3)], we exercise our inescapable duty of praying for each other unceasingly.

Friends, we have been reading of stories and seeing the images of the sufferings of our sisters and brothers in the Republic of Cameroon in their struggle with a system that has divided them based on an imposed description of Anglophone and Francophone divide. The burden of this artificial divide and the relentless effort by systems to perpetuate this divide has brought in its wake untold suffering – maiming, destruction of property and life and needless disruptions in the lives of ordinary defenceless citizens caught in the divide.

Many of our sisters and brothers face brutalities, oppression and repression, denial of access of the necessities of life and other deprivations on a daily basis. This situation is even worsened in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic where most of these innocent and defenceless sisters and brothers do not even have access to safety resources.

We are worried and greatly disturbed by this situation. We are however hopeful and have faith that the leaders of Cameroon and those leading the struggle for cessation based on Anglophone and Francophone divide will allow God’s spirit to lead them to embrace and entrench a culture of peace that allows for full expression and exercise of freedom with responsibility by all citizens without any form of dehumanizing reaction from people pursuing self-interest agenda.

We are by this letter calling on you and your congregants to pray for Cameroon, especially those with privileged authority to listen to the cries of the people for peace and freedom to life and safe living, knowing that the hearts of the kings are in the hands of God (Proverbs 21:1). Let us pray for healing, reconciliation, and restoration in Cameroon and all other troubled nations on the continent.

May our loving and merciful God hear the prayers we make and come through for our sisters and brothers in Cameroon and all other troubles nations.

Yours faithfully,

VEN. J.W. KOFI deGRAFT-JOHNSON
